Low End Snowfall (90% chance of higher amounts) – Sunday through Monday

High End Snowfall (10% chance of higher amounts) – Sunday through Monday

Event Summary – Tonight through Saturday

...Light snow late tonight through early Saturday afternoon...

- ✓ Period of greatest impact: Overnight through early Saturday morning

Winter Weather Advisory midnight through 1PM Saturday:

- WHERE: Litchfield County in Connecticut
- WHAT: Light snow. Slippery road conditions are expected.

Event Summary – Late Sunday through Monday

...Moderate to heavy snow possible late Sunday through Monday morning...

- ✓ Period of greatest impact: Late Sunday through Monday morning

- WHERE: East-central New York, southern Vermont, Berkshires, NW Connecticut
- WHAT: Moderate to heavy snow possible. Snowfall rates could exceed 1 inch per hour at some locations, but it is too early to determine exactly where. There is potential for 7 or more inches across much of the region, but confidence is not high enough to issue a Winter Storm Watch yet.
- CONFIDENCE: Moderate that snow will occur, and low on snow amounts. There is a large range of possible outcomes with respect to snow amounts, but at least some snow is expected to fall.
