

HURRICANE READINESS

including HURREVAC

TRAINING TOPICS

- Overview of hurricane hazards
- Understanding National Hurricane Center forecast products
- Dealing with forecast uncertainty as decision-makers
- Using Hurricane Evacuation Studies for planning
- Leveraging HURREVAC as a decision support tool

VIRTUAL HURRICANE READINESS TRAINING

For Federal, State, Local, Tribal and Territorial Emergency Managers

TWO OFFERINGS

– March 30-April 1; 9am-12pm EDT

✓ GoToWebinar Registration

<https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/register/440607707879677707>

– May 4-6; 1pm-4pm EDT

✓ GoToWebinar Registration

<https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/register/6093901773315027727>

FEMA

HURRICANE READINESS

including HURREVAC

Tuesday

Unit 1 Hurricane Basics and Hazards

Unit 2 Overview of National Hurricane Center Products

Wednesday

Unit 3 Dealing with Forecast Uncertainty

Unit 4 Making Better Decisions

Thursday

Unit 5 Application of HURREVAC

Unit 6 Instructor Panel Discussion

This training is being offered by FEMA's National Hurricane Program. The National Hurricane Program provides data, resources and technical assistance for hurricane evacuation planning and response for state, local, tribal, territorial and federal government partners. The NHP program partners will provide instruction for this webinar series, including FEMA, National Hurricane Center, and USACE staff.

Direct questions to NHP@fema.dhs.gov.

FEMA