

Possible Snow/Icing Thur PM - Fri

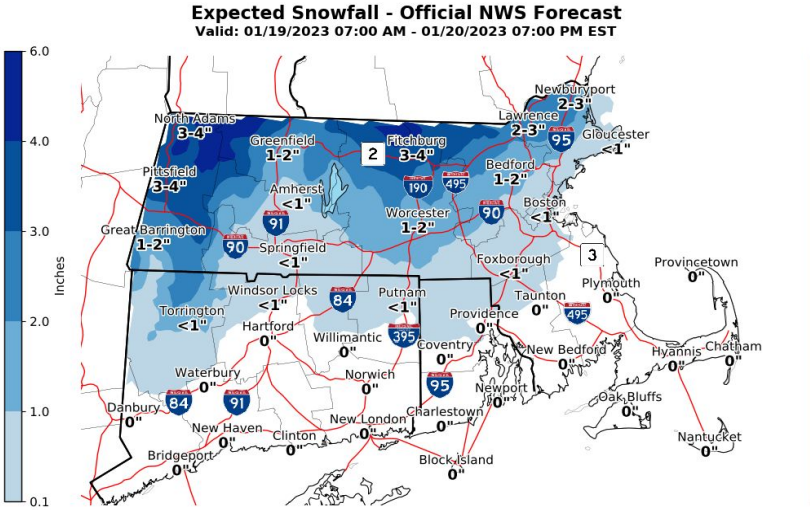

Boston/Norton, MA

WEATHER FORECAST OFFICE

OVERVIEW:

- Periods of snow and mixed precipitation Thursday afternoon into Friday, especially north of I-90.
- Untreated roads/surfaces may become snow covered/icy

TIMING	▪ Thursday evening through Friday
HAZARDS & IMPACTS	▪ Snow/freezing rain may result in untreated roads/surfaces to become slick/icy.
NWS ALERTS	▪ No NWS headlines are not in effect. A Winter Weather Advisory could be needed for northern Massachusetts if confidence continues to increase.
FORECAST CHALLENGES	▪ Confidence in snowfall/icing totals is low due to the uncertainty of exact precipitation types during this period.
POST-EVENT OUTLOOK	▪ Dry conditions for both Saturday and Sunday. Temperatures are near seasonable, in the 30s on Saturday, and on Sunday upper-30s to low-40s.
NEXT BRIEFING	▪ 6 am Wednesday
